

COLLINS IN IRONS TESTIFIES FOR HIS "PAL" RUDOLPH

Deputies Armed With Shotguns and Revolvers Conducted the Two Bandits From Their Jail Cells to the Courtroom.

RUDOLPH TELLS THE STORY OF THE SHOOTING

Special Messenger Hurries to Supreme Court in the Effort to Obtain a Second Respite for Collins, the Condemned Murderer.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
UNION, Mo., March 25.—George Collins, who is to be hanged here tomorrow for the murder of Detective Schumacher, unless the appeal filed by his attorneys Friday morning before the supreme court in banc for a stay of execution shall prevail, was the central figure in today's trial of "Bill" Rudolph, his pal in the Union Bank robbery and his accomplice in the murder.

Collins took the stand at the opening of court to testify as best he could in defense of Rudolph. The two men are still pals; and Collins, who has little hope of the success of the appeal to the supreme court, is doing all he can to lighten the burden of Rudolph's punishment.

Collins, Shackled,

Takes the Stand.

Collins was marched from the jail, through a pelting rain, past the gallows erected for his execution, to the courtroom. Sheriff Bruch and a guard of deputies marched beside him with shotguns and revolvers held close to his breast. As he passed the gallows he glanced at it, shrugged his shoulder, and took no further notice of it.

When he entered the courtroom, all eyes turned from Rudolph and were centered upon the witness. His hands were shackled together on his coat lapel was a shamrock. His lips were smiling carelessly, and when he spoke his voice was low but distinct. Now and then he looked toward Rudolph, but he did not speak in the courtroom.

As Collins took the stand, his counsel asked that the handcuffs be removed from his wrists. Judge Davidson refused the request. A moment later, when Collins was asked to point out, on a diagram of the Rudolph house, near Stanton, the location of certain doors and windows, the request that his hands be released was repeated.

Judge Davidson agreed to allow the right hand to be freed, the left being shackled to the wrist of deputy sheriff. This was done, and he began to explain the diagram.

Condemned Man

Tells of the Shooting.

Then Collins said:
"We were sitting near the stove in the kitchen when Dyer told us four men, 'raining guns,' were coming. Bill says, 'here's going to be trouble,' and after telling his mother and sisters to go to the cellar we ran to the bedroom, got our guns, and before we had time to get out of the south door one of the posse fired two shots into the house."
"Schumacher stood in front of the middle door, Cromer and Veder stood behind him, and Tichener was near the south end of the house."
"We jumped out of the door and ordered them to hold up their hands. Schumacher shot at Rudolph with a shotgun and Tichener shot me in the head."

"Blood spurted from my head, but I advanced with Rudolph. Veder turned when the children came and fired from his revolver at us."
"Tichener again fired from around the corner of the house without taking any aim. Then he ran to the door."
"By that time my two guns were empty, and I holloed to Bill: 'Make this fellow run a little faster.' Bill sent a couple of shots at Tichener and the only effect was that he ran a little faster."
"Schumacher was lying on the ground, one of his arms over his head."
"I found Cromer in the front distance from the house and told him to put up his hands. He raised his right, and I ordered him to put up his left. He said he got out because it was broke. I took his revolver from his hip pocket, gave him a kick and told him to run. He did."
"Rudolph and I went back to the house. Rudolph had somebody's shotgun."

Did Not Tell Who ##### Shot Schumacher.

"The girls bandaged my head, and after cleaning out revolvers we bade good-by to the Rudolph people and went down to the river."
Collins made no attempt to say who shot Schumacher. Upon cross-examination Collins said that he was born in New York City; that he was first married in New York City; that he was a miner at Carthage, Mo.; that was where he learned how to use nitroglycerine and dynamite.
"I suggested that you rob the bank at Union," said the prosecutor.
"Objection sustained on the ground that the answer might incriminate him. The prosecution argued that a condemned murderer could not incriminate himself."
A series of questions that followed met with this same result.

Collins Identified

Rudolph's Revolvers.

Collins identified Rudolph's revolvers and stated that they were purchased in St. Louis about three months before the bank robbery at Union.
Witnesses were asked about one week ago he did not tell Jailer Dawson that if Bill Rudolph told all he knew of the Schumacher murder he would and could save his (Collins) life.
The state's objection was sustained, and the main and deliberate Collins admitted that he had been convicted of murder in the first degree and that he is to be hanged Saturday.
That concluded his testimony, and the

SAYS BURTON DIDN'T WANT ANY DISHONEST DEALS

Attorney T. B. Harlan, for the Defense, Testifies That Senator Said He Would Not Give His Services to Questionable Transactions.

GOVERNMENT HOPES TO CONVICT ON SEVEN COUNTS

Rialto Grain Co. Informed Counsel He Was Not Engaged to "Perform Any Particular Duties With Departments in Washington."

The defense began the introduction of testimony in the trial of United States Senator Joseph Ralph Burton, charged with using his influence with the postoffice department in favor of the Rialto Grain Co. Friday morning by placing attorney Thomas B. Harlan on the stand.
Harlan was the attorney for the Rialto Grain and Securities Co. from its inception. He told at much length the circumstances attending the employment of Senator Burton by the company and the conferences he had with him in regard to the company's affairs.

From the questioning of Harlan it became evident that the defense will try to show that the company agreed to pay Burton his $500 per month in advance as general counsel of the company and not for any particular service he might render to the company in the departments at Washington.

The defense placed Harlan on the stand only after it had exhausted its technical objections to the trial proceeding further. After the government had formally completed its case at the opening of court by introducing the indictment against Maj. Dennis, Judge Krum filed a demurrer to each count in the indictment, alleging that sufficient evidence had not been introduced to sustain any of them.

Declines to Listen to Demurrers.

Judge Adams promptly overruled the demurrers, saying he had passed on the same point earlier in the trial. He declined to listen to any arguments on the subject.
Judge Adams interposed with the demurrer to each count in the indictment, but he was compelled to specify on which of the nine counts it hoped to secure a conviction.

District Attorney Dyer replied that the government had no more than two of the counts and expected to secure a conviction on the other seven.
Krum insisted that Dyer should elect which of the seven he proposed to use in his efforts to secure a conviction.
Judge Adams interposed with the announcement that he will instruct the jury that counts one and three of the indictment specified the same offense, but that the other five each related specific offenses and that the government need not elect.

Harlan then began his testimony.
An interesting incident occurred while he was testifying. Harlan related that when he explained the nature of the Rialto Grain Co.'s business to Burton that the Senator told him he would do nothing inconsistent with his oath as a United States senator.
"That was my admiration," exclaimed the witness dramatically.
"We don't care for your admiration," replied District Attorney Dyer icily.

Relates History of Company.

In response to questions by Judge Krum, Harlan related the history of the Rialto Grain company at length. He told how it was organized by Maj. H. C. Dennis to succeed the Brooks Brokerage company, with which Dennis had been connected.
His testimony related principally, however, to a trip he made to Chicago Nov. 17, 1902, with Senator Burton. He said Dennis told him that morning that Senator Burton was to be the associate counsel of the company and about thirty minutes later the Senator introduced Burton to Harlan in the Rialto offices. After a brief conversation, Harlan said, Burton announced that he had arranged to take the noon train to Chicago, and Harlan and W. Kaestor, an advertising man, accompanied him to Union Station.

Reaching the station, Harlan and Kaestor decided to go with Burton to Chicago.
Harlan says he explained the workings of the company to Burton on the train; told him they wanted him as general counsel; told him that the officers of the company feared that some of the troubles of the Brooks company might result in the indictment of Brooks or Dennis.
Harlan said he told Burton that the company had a great distributing plant, which sent out 30,000 letters a day, and which handled real securities. He said further that he told Burton that the company was thinking of employing an attorney to look after eastern securities.
He said they wanted a man familiar with the federal law as well as the state laws. Harlan told Burton the company was looking for a man like that.

"Are you going to keep within the limits of the federal laws?" Harlan said.
"We are, by preventing misrepresentation," said he replied.
Harlan told Burton he examined all the advertising matter before it was started through the mails.
It was at this point that Harlan said Burton refused to accept the position.
When Col. Dyer's comment on Harlan's refusal to accept the position was made, the trial continued.

CAR IS MASS OF FLAMES AND FLASHES

Passengers, at First Stupefied, Recover, Become Panicked and Stricken and Blinded by Light—Explosion

Preceded Display.

A blinding flash, accompanied by a loud report from the exploding of an incandescent electric light globe, warned the passengers on a southbound Bellefontaine car, No. 202, Thursday night that the car had been struck by lightning.
The passengers were panic-stricken for a moment. One woman screamed and started for the door. Others admitted a moment later that they were stupefied and unable to move. All lights in the car were extinguished.

Persons at nearby windows were attracted by the flash, and for the moment the car seemed enveloped in flames. Intense light flashed from the trolley, and the connections, front and back of the car, and rail connections.

With a common impulse the witnesses near the corner of Eighteenth and Papin streets rushed to the doors to go to the relief of the passengers, but by the time they reached the sidewalk the darkness was turning the corner to proceed east in Papin street.

Conductor R. B. Peyton of 3212 Compton avenue was in charge of the car, and he told his experience to the Post-Dispatch as follows:

BY R. B. PEYTON.

It was my first experience with a trolley car in an electrical display. I was standing on the rear platform, watching the lightning and rain as the car approached Papin street, going south on Eighteenth.

There was a flash that seemed to come from everywhere.
I must have turned toward the car, when a report added to my fright and I ducked. I admit I was scared.

I bent my knees to get nearer the floor when what seemed to be 10,000 sparks fell around me.

The car door was open and the force of the explosion, which I learned later came from the exploding of the incandescent light globe above my head.
The instant the flash passed and I was able to see, the sparks, fine enough to be called "ground fire," seemed to be finer than dust, ceased falling and I heard the screams of a woman inside the car.
She was seated near the rear and must have been enveloped in the sparks the same as I was.
She jumped and started for the door, but by that time I had recovered and went to meet her. The car kept on going and I could feel that it was still under control of the motor.

BOY REFUSED A CANDY BRIBE

Joseph Stevenson, aged 14, who says he has no home, was arrested Friday charged with stealing a silver box and a gold watch and a diamond ring from Mrs. Mattie Joyce, both of St. Market street.
Joyce, aged 7, says she saw the robbery and that Stevenson tried to bribe her with a candy box, offering to buy her all the candy he wanted.

SHOT FOR DEATH OF YANKEE SAILOR

SANTO DOMINGO, March 25.—Gen. Nicolas Arias, an insurgent leader, who gave the firing order which resulted in the death of Machinist J. C. Johnson of the American gunboat Yankee, Feb. 1 last, has been captured by government troops. After a dramatic court-martial he was sentenced to death and immediately shot.

Damage in St. Louis Is Confined to Flooding of Un- roofed Basements and Interruption of Electric Lighting—All Work Stops at the World's Fair—Houses in Suburbs Ruined.

COLD WAVE AFTER STORM

Freezing temperature will follow the heavy storm of Thursday night, and Friday.
The official prediction is:
Rain and colder Friday afternoon and night; partly cloudy and much colder Friday night.
The minimum temperature Friday night is expected to be 30 degrees.

The terrific storm which Thursday night swept Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas and Indian Territory, and is still deluging St. Louis and vicinity, did little damage in this city, but in its path across Illinois it left the wrecks of scores of homes, business buildings, barns, churches and school houses and injured at least six persons one of whom may die.

The damage in the southeastern part of East St. Louis, where the wind reached almost the velocity of a tornado, and where 50 buildings were wholly or partially destroyed, is estimated between $75,000 and $100,000. It included the wrecking by an explosion and burning of five buildings of the St. Louis Fireworks Co., at Fireworks Station; the demolition of three buildings of the Pittsburgh Reduction Works in Alta Sita, on the Southern railroad, and the complete destruction of the company's laboratory and office; the wreck of a dozen frame buildings, chiefly homes and small business houses, and the unroofing of many more.

At Caseyville, Ill., a church was blown down and various barns and dwellings damaged; at Freeburg the top story of the old Joseph Reichart home was blown away, many other buildings were damaged, and the schools were forced to close until repairs could be made.

A cold wave is following the storm, and is expected to reach St. Louis Friday night.

Laboratory and ##### Offices Wrecked.

The greatest damage done by the storm was in the southeastern part of East St. Louis, in the section known as Alta Sita, and at Fireworks Station, four miles east of the city.

Three buildings of the Pittsburgh Construction Co., on the Southern railroad tracks, were completely wrecked, causing a loss of between $10,000 and $20,000, and injuring one man so badly that he may die.

The buildings destroyed were the two-story office and laboratory, where most of the property loss occurred; the one-story brick acid house, in which 25 men were working and where the accident occurred, and the one-story workshop.

All of these buildings are completely demolished and piled on the railroad tracks. All the men in the acid house barely escaped being crushed to death. A warning crash from the fall of one of the other buildings saved 15 of them; the other, Andrew Degeer, was caught and buried. His companions, working in the drenching rain and the blinding lightning, dug him out of the wreck. He was so badly crushed that he may die.

At Fireworks Station, where the St. Louis Fireworks Co. had its plant, lightning, explosions and fire completed work begun by the wind. There were five buildings here

ANDREW DEGEER, workman at Pittsburgh Reduction Works; badly crushed; will probably die.

MRS. HARRIET DORIS; caught in wreck of home; arm broken, hip and shoulder injured.

FRANK DORIS; foot broken.

LOUIS KAISER; struck by flying brick; head injured.

DAVID BLODGETT, street car conductor; head cut by flying glass.

MRS. JOHN DINZLER; injured in wreck of her home.

When the storm started, none were left when the work of the fire was ended. The largest of these buildings was swept from its foundation by the wind. It was stored with a large stock of fireworks. A stove inside the building was lighted to prevent the loss of stock through freezing.

As the building was blown over, the stove was overturned and set fire to some of the rockets, cannon crackers and other explosives. A terrific explosion resulted, and fire and burning fireworks were shot against the other buildings.
They ignited quickly, despite the drenching rain, and for half an hour the air was

40 MEN BREAK INTO JAIL AND WHIP PRISONER

Masked Armed Mob Defies Deputy Sheriff at St. Clair, Mo., and Threaten to Shoot if Necessary to Accomplish Object.

WINN DAVIS, THE VICTIM, IS GUILTY OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY

After Being Terribly Punished "Citizens" Turn Him Loose—Marched From Prison Directly in Front of Powerless Officer.

Forty masked men, a dozen of them carrying shotguns, which they threatened to use on the slightest opposition to their plans, defied S. P. Weatherford, a deputy sheriff of Franklin County, Missouri, at St. Clair Thursday night, and breaking down the door of the village jail, took Winn Davis, arrested for highway robbery, from the jail and whipped him.

Davis has been sought by the county officials for several weeks. Edward Spraul of Union charged that Davis stopped him on a lonely road between Union and St. Clair and attempted to take his money under threats of his life.

By a fortunate accident Spraul was enabled to turn the tables and secure the revolver that Davis was intending to use on him. Davis took flight.

Weatherford, who has been employed as one of the guards for Collins and Rudolph at their hearings and while in jail at Union under Sheriff Bruch, was detailed to make the arrest.

No Supreme

Court Cases for Mob.

Weatherford arrested Davis near St. Clair and took him in his carriage to the village, placing him in the jail there, while he got supper. It was then just dusk.

When Weatherford returned to the jail he found the yard filled with men wearing handkerchief masks. He walked among the men and informed them as to who he was and demanded his prisoner.

The leader, who was "not known to Weatherford, called to two of the men carrying shotguns and met the deputy sheriff and advised him to get in his carriage and leave at once for Union.

"We are not here to make trouble, but we do not care to have cases from this county pending in the supreme court," the leader said. "It would be exactly what we want for you to leave us to take care of this man, and then we will not have to harm any one."

Weatherford looked over the gathering and decided to act accordingly.
While he was near, the men detailed to open the jail door did not stop the use of crowbars or sledges.

Just as Weatherford was driving away, he saw the prisoner brought out. He waited until it was learned that the man had been terribly whipped, and that the "citizens" considered him sufficiently punished.

He released the prisoner, but refused to tell Weatherford what disposition had been made of him.

St. Clair is about eight miles from Union, a village of less than 500 inhabitants. The jail there is in charge of the constable, and is not a secure one.

HIST! ZOUNDS! A MYSTERY!

How Happened That This Complete Set of Women's Apparel Strayed Into Strange Cellar?

A lot of feminine apparel, found in the cellar of a house occupied by Walter Kennedy, at 201 South Third street, has been taken to the Wyoming street police station, and the police are investigating the mystery of how the clothes happened to be where they were found.

Kennedy's 13-year-old son, Walter, went into the cellar Thursday afternoon and found the complete set of clothes, even to underwear. There was nothing about them to suggest the owner except the name, "K. W. Taylor," written in a fine hand upon a handkerchief.

PASSENGER AVERTS WRECK

Jumps From One Street Car to Another and Sets Brake as "Wild" Car Starts Down Inclined.

A passenger on Jefferson avenue car No. 64, whose name was not ascertained by the street railroad employes, averted a possible serious wreck by promptness of action shortly after noon Friday.

The car on which he was a passenger was approaching Gravois avenue from the south when the rear car of a train of five being taken to the repair shop, broke from the couplings and started down the incline at a good speed.

Motorman Martin of the northbound car shouted a warning to his conductor and reversed his car to run back out of the way, at the same time warning the crew of the following car by ringing his gong.

The passenger jumped from the car as it started back and jumping the car as it passed him rapidly set the brake and brought it to a standstill before it caught the regular car, which had been slowed down on account of the following car.

COL. MARMADUKE DIES AT HIS HOME

Member of the Noted Missouri Family and Former Confederate Army Officer.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MASSILLIA, Mo., March 25.—Col. Vincent Marmaduke is dead, after an illness of several weeks. His death occurred at his home in this county.

Col. Marmaduke was born in this (Ballou) county, in 1830. He was the eldest of a family of six brothers, one of whom was the late Gov. John F. Marmaduke.

Col. Marmaduke was educated in the public schools and later was graduated from Yale. From Yale he returned to his father's farm and remained there until the war began.

He was a member of the convention to decide whether Missouri should secede from the Union. His speech at that convention caused him to be banished from Missouri by the commander of the Union forces.

He entered the Confederate army and was appointed an aid on the staff of Gen. Hindman. They are listed as being at the battle of Chickamauga.

Subsequently he was sent abroad on a mission for the Confederate states. On his return to America he went to Canada and became involved in what was known as the "Northwest Conspiracy."

Col. Marmaduke was arrested and confined at Camp Douglas. Later he was acquitted of the charges and returned to his home in this county.

For almost 40 years intervening Col. Marmaduke has lived on his farm in Ballou county. He frequently visited St. Louis and Jefferson City, and was well known in both places.

Col. Marmaduke was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Sabin of Shelbyville, Tenn. Two daughters were born to them. They are now Mrs. Robert Cary of Kansas City and Mrs. Dr. Harrison of Marshall.

It was at Mrs. Harrison's home that Col. Marmaduke was cared for during his last illness.

Col. Marmaduke's second wife was the widow of Henry Ames of St. Louis. She died a few years ago. They had no children.

Gov. Marmaduke died while in office, but Col. Marmaduke is survived by four of his brothers. They are Leslie and Darwin Marmaduke of St. Louis, Merdith Marmaduke of Florida and Capt. Henry Marmaduke of Washington.

Col. Marmaduke's funeral will be held at the residence of Dr. William Harrison at 3 p. m. Sunday, March 27, and the funeral will be at Ridge Park Cemetery, near this city.

THEY'RE LACED IN FRONT THIS YEAR

No Gymnastic Stunts Required to Get in or Out of the Corset Fashion Approves.

The laced-in-front corset is being shown at the Dressmakers' convention. Mrs. Lucile Nelson of Chicago gave a talk upon the advantages of that kind of corset Friday.

"Lacing a corset in front is natural," said Mrs. Nelson. "Who ever thought of lacing a shoe in back, and yet that's practically what we've been doing in a corset way all these years."

When Mrs. Nelson talked upon corsets at the Dressmakers' convention in Chicago last week she wanted to illustrate her talk by fitting corsets before the convention. Some objection was raised, but Mr. Pearson, the manager, finally agreed to permit her to do so if she fitted the corset on a woman that was clad in a sweater or some kind of a waist.

Mrs. Nelson said that it was not possible to fit a corset in that way, and no actual demonstration was given.

None was given at the talk Friday. The laced-in-front corset has its laces directly in front, and is hooked to the right of the laces.

"Another of its advantages," said Mrs. Nelson, "is that it gives the wearer the much desired princess back. There is a smoothness in the way a bodice fits over that kind of corset that cannot be obtained in any other way."

"A woman can stand before her mirror and lace her corset without doing gymnastic stunts as is necessary with the laces in the back."

"A woman who has eaten an extra large dinner can always gain relief from the pressure of her corset by lacing it in front."

"Of course the laced-in-front corset is also straight-front. It does away with the great bulkhead of all women ever so slightly inclined toward embonpoint—the abdomen."

Deputy P. Bull, deputy of Jailer Dawson, is at Mullamphy Hospital in a critical condition from blood poisoning, the result of a cut on his foot, which he made while operating on a corn five weeks ago.

Bull is 48 years old, single, and lives with his mother and brother-in-law, Dr. R. C. Atkinson, former coroner, at 3100 Lafayette avenue.

Mr. Bull has held city offices for a number of years, serving as assistant deputy coroner and police clerk.

A WIFE'S RIGHT TO GO TO A THEATER

The assumption of a married woman's rights to go to the theater with another woman, by Mrs. John A. Lee of 2731 Lawton avenue Friday night, caused herself and her husband to appear in the City Hall police court Friday morning.

When Mrs. Lee returned from the theater her husband had put their 6-year-old son to bed but he was awaiting the coming of his wife.

They quarreled and she summoned a policeman. They were taken to the Court House but their appearance was such that they were released on their own bond.

Mrs. Lee was discharged by Judge Tracy. Her husband was fined $5, which was stayed on good behavior. They left the courtroom together. Their home is in Indianapolis.

URGED TO VOTE FOR FOLK.

The Traveling Men's Folk Club has issued a circular to the traveling men of Missouri urging them to aid in the nomination and election of Joseph W. Folk for governor. The circular is signed by G. W. Harris, president; G. W. Smith, vice-president; J. H. Wear, secretary, and Elias Lewis, treasurer.

The circular denounces the "state machine" and declares that it has employed every device of the "professional politician and trickster" to defeat Mr. Folk for the nomination.

It also takes Gov. Dockery to task for his action after the St. Louis primaries and criticizes Hawks, Reed and Gantt who, it says, have combined against Folk.

Attempts Life at Lunch.

After an absence of seven years, Frederick Bockerman returned Friday morning to the home of his parents at 1804 Angellou street. At noon as they sat down to lunch he poured poison into his coffee and drank it. His parents saw the act too late to stop him, and hurried him to the City Hospital. It is thought he will recover. Bockerman refuses to give any cause for his wish to die.

LAVIN AND POLICE INDICTED AGAIN

New Names are Included in List of Patrolmen in Election Fraud Cases.

New indictments were returned by the grand jury Friday morning against John J. Lavin and Timothy Lavin and the police sergeants and officers indicted with them in connection with the Democratic primary frauds, together with first indictments against two other police sergeants, four additional officers and an alleged Indian.

The new men indicted are Sergt. Harry Dorsey, who was stationed at the Arcade polling place; Sergt. Patrick Kirk, who was stationed at the polling place at Easton and Marcus avenues; Officers Wm. A. Dillon, John O'Connor, Fred Kramer and Maurice Devine, and "Jimmy" Holmes, charged with being an "Indian".

The men indicted are Sergt. John Berry and Officers Frank Nally, Timothy Sullivan, Andrew Aylward, Matthew Curbery, S. L. Woods, Timothy Flynn and John Mohr.

The indictments were returned to Judge Daniel G. Taylor, and differ from those upon which the most of these same men were indicted by Judge Moore in that they allege interference with voters upon the part of the Lavins and neglect of duty upon the part of the police sergeants and officers. The old indictments charged interference with and intimidation of voters and Judge Moore held the indictments faulty because they did not give the names of these voters. Holmes is charged with aiding and assisting in interference with voters. The explicit charge against him will be that he distributed the slips which the Lavins passed around to their Indians.

The indicted police sergeants and officers will appear before Judge Taylor at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, when they will be arraigned, and when their cases will be set for trial. They will be suspended from duty as soon as they give bond, and their cases will be certified to the court of criminal correction.

LEAVES $2000 TO FAITHFUL HORSE

Late Dr. John Gilwee's Will Provided Also for but Ten Carriages at His Funeral.

"In case that my horse, Tarry, which I have used for nearly 25 years, survive me, I order that $2000 of my estate be placed in trust at 5 per cent per annum, and said interest used for his feed, shelter and care as long as he lives, and after his death said $2000 shall be divided among my legal heirs."

This clause in the will of the late Dr. John Gilwee makes Tarry the richest horse in St. Louis. The animal has a personal estate of $2000, the income from which is for his sole enjoyment.

Dr. Gilwee died Thursday at his home, 213 Meramec street. He was 70 years old, 213 Meramec street. He was in South St. Louis, where he had practiced medicine the greater part of his life.

He had never married and he lavished his faithful horse a goodly part of the affection which might have been bestowed upon wife and children. He always drove the horse, in black, in making his rounds.

The will was filed Friday for probate. Another provision which it contained was that the funeral procession of the deceased should not consist of more than a hearse and ten carriages.

The bulk of the estate was left to his brother, William Gilwee, and his sister, Margaret Shea, and his brother-in-law, John Barrett. The will was drawn Jan. 20, 1902.

LOVED HIM, SO SHE CUT HIM

Rose Joecko Saw Sweetheart Kiss Another Woman and She Used a Razor.

Rose Joecko was arraigned before Judge Pollard in the Dayton Street Police Court Friday morning to answer a charge that she cut John Maloney, a bartender at Sixth and Chestnut streets with a razor.

The woman admitted that she did cut him, but she said she was sorry she did it. When asked why she felt this way, she said that several days ago, while riding on a suburban car at Fourteenth and Morgan streets, she saw Maloney kiss another woman. This so angered her that she went to Maloney's home at 914 Cass avenue and cut him. She said: "I loved him, and I couldn't stand to see him go with another woman."

Her case was taken under advisement. Later the court fined the young woman $100 in lieu of which she must go to the workhouse.

CHARLEY MITCHELL IS COMING HERE

The Once Great English Pugilist Takes Off His Hat to the American Fighter of Today.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Charley Mitchell, the well-known English fighter, who was beaten some years ago by James J. Corbett for the heavyweight championship, arrived in New York today on his way to St. Louis. He was waving an olive branch and announced that he was here to put through a business deal in the World's city and to see some prize fights.

"America is the only place where they have prize fights any more," said he. "They have a chance to make money here and you have the greatest fighters that ever lived. In the old days the English fighters who scrapped with the bare fists were good, but they would have no chance with the Americans of today."

JEM MACE WILL VISIT ST. LOUIS

First Premier Pugilist of the World Will Give Exhibitions During the World's Fair.

Prof. Bill Clark, the once famous English boxer, has received a letter from his old partner, Jem Mace, who at one time was one of the premier boxers of the world, saying that he intends to visit St. Louis. Mace is in Cape Town, South Africa, and writes that boxing is slow on the dark continent and that he intends to return to England, from whence he will come to St. Louis and give exhibitions of his prowess, for a small cash consideration, during the Fair.

Mace will bring his many trophies, medals and belts, among them being the champion belt of England, the middle-weight champion belt, the Illustrated Sporting News belt, the American championship belt, the California gold belt and the Australian belt.

Egyptian Club Question.

Arguments on a petition for the revocation of the proforma decree of incorporation of the Egyptian Club (colored) were heard Friday morning by Judge O'Neill Ryan in division No. 4 of the circuit court. There were many residents of Cabanne in court. They are supporting the action because they do not want the clubhouse on Delmar avenue, between Hamilton and Goodfellow avenues, where it is proposed to locate it. Judge Ryan took the question of jurisdiction under advisement. He will announce his decision at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

For the exercise of a little ingenuity in spelling

The word Egg-O-See

To the persons who send us before June 15, 1904, the word Egg-O-See spelled in the greatest number of ways we will give $1,000 in cash divided as follows:

To the one sending the greatest variety of spellings.....	$100.00
To the second sending the greatest variety of spellings.....	75.00
To the third sending the greatest variety of spellings.....	50.00
To the fourth sending the greatest variety of spellings.....	25.00
To the fifth sending the greatest variety of spellings.....	10.00
To the 740 sending the next greatest variety of spellings.....	$1.00
Total.....	$1000.00

The prizes will be awarded immediately after the close of the competition.

The competition is open to all. There is only one condition and that is that for each five different spellings of the word Egg-O-See you must send in one of the little folders, same as used in the school children's contest, which are found inside each package of the food; for instance if you sent in 15 ways of spelling Egg-O-See you would need three folders. Be sure and write your name plainly. The spelling must be such as could properly be pronounced Egg-O-See. Here are a few ways of spelling Egg-O-See: Egg-O-See, Egg-O-See, Egg-O-See, Egg-O-See, Egg-O-See.

Save all the little folders from the food packages and write as many different ways of spelling as you can. Get your friends to help you and it will be easy to get one of the prizes, besides being an interesting study. The thousands of school children to whom we have paid prizes will be interested in this competition.

We are giving this thousand dollars to more fully acquaint people with the pre-eminent merits of Egg-O-See, now universally acknowledged to be the best flaked wheat food manufactured. All now recognize the healthfulness, convenience and palatability of flaked wheat foods. Egg-O-See has become the standard in this line because it retails for only 10c for a full sized package, and its quality is unquestionably the highest.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR THE GREEN PACKAGE.

If your grocer does not keep it, send us his name and 10 cents and we will send you a package, prepaid.

Address all communications to Egg-O-See, Quincy, Ill.

CARS INJURE MAN TWICE.

Driver of Rig Is Hurt in Successive Accidents.

Adam Belch of 4233 Lorraine avenue did not go buggy riding Friday morning. Instead he remained at home to nurse numerous bruises which he received Thursday in two collisions with Easton avenue cars. The first accident occurred while Mr.

Belch was taking his daily drive down Easton avenue. Near Clark avenue the rig was struck by a car and its occupant fatally injured. After having had his car dressed, Mr. Belch was returning to his home under the care of Andrew Stemple of 2417 Semple avenue, when the buggy was again struck. Both men were thrown to the street and the buggy was completely wrecked. It was necessary to remove Mr. Belch to his residence in another carriage.

Nature's Greatest Cure
For Men and Women

Swamp-Root is the Most Perfect Healer and Natural Aid to the Kidneys, Liver and Bladder Ever Discovered.

Swamp-Root Saved My Life

I received promptly the sample bottle of your great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root. I had an awful pain in my back, over the kidneys and had to urinate from four to seven times a night often with smarting and burning. I had to get up every two or three hours and I would soon die. I took the first dose of your Swamp-Root in the evening at bed time, and was very much surprised. I had to urinate but once that night, and the second night I did not get up until morning. I have used three bottles of Swamp-Root, and to-day am as well as ever. I am a farmer, and am working every day, and watch the pumpkins, the same that I weighed before I was taken sick.

MR. T. S. APKER.

Gratefully yours,
T. S. APKER,
April 9th, 1903.

There comes a time to both men and women when sickness and poor health bring anxiety and trouble hard to bear; disappointment seems to follow every effort of physicians in our behalf, and remedies we try have little or no effect. In many such cases serious mistakes are made in doctoring, and not knowing what the disease is or what makes us sick. Kind nature warns us by certain symptoms, which are unmistakable evidence of danger, such as too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, scalding irritation, pain or dull ache in the back—they tell us in silence that our kidneys need doctoring. If neglected now, the disease advances until the face looks pale or sallow, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, feet swell, and sometimes the heart acts badly.

There is comfort in knowing that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, fulfills every wish in quickly relieving such troubles. It corrects inability to hold urine and stalling pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. In taking this wonderful new discovery, Swamp-Root, you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that has ever been discovered.

Swamp-Root a Blessing to Women

My kidneys and bladder gave me great trouble for over two months and I suffered untold misery. I became weak, emaciated and very much run down. I had great difficulty in retaining my urine, and was obliged to pass water very often night and day. After I had used a sample bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent me on request, I experienced relief and I immediately bought my drugist two large bottles and continued taking it regularly. I am pleased to say that Swamp-Root cured me entirely. I can now stand on my feet all day without any had symptoms whatever. Swamp-Root has proved a blessing to me.

Gratefully yours,

SAW TRAIN; BAD
WRECK IS AVERTED

Iron Mountain Passengers Come Ahead in Disobedience to Orders at Cadet, Mo.

A straight track and slow speed probably averted a serious wreck at Cadet, 60 miles south of St. Louis, on the Iron Mountain Railroad, at 11 o'clock Thursday night. A southbound passenger train, leaving St. Louis at 8:40 o'clock, and a northbound passenger train came into collision at that point. It was reported that several people were hurt, but at the Missouri Pacific offices in St. Louis it was stated that this was untrue.

One of the trains was, according to the railroad officials, running in disobedience of orders. They came together at Cadet, but one train had stopped and was seen by the crew of the other train in time to reduce speed, and the collision did little damage. It is said at the Missouri Pacific offices that both trains continued on their way.

The railroad company says no one was injured sufficiently to need the attention of a physician. It was reported that one of the men injured was a mail clerk. The railroad officials say they do not know the names of any who were hurt or reported hurt.

Five weeks of married life were enough for Mrs. Irene Callaghan, a dancing soloist who ran away from her home at Omaha, Neb., two days ago for the purpose of returning to her dancing. Her husband, Edward Callaghan, followed her to St. Louis and caused her arrest Thursday evening at the Plaza Hotel. She was later released. Mrs. Callaghan left Omaha in company with Viola Davis, another dancer, and Capt. Storrs and Morgan Rumbaugh, showmen. She had been married but five weeks.

Miss Fox's Funeral Saturday.

The funeral of Miss Anne C. Fox, who was for more than half a century a resident of St. Louis, will be held Saturday morning from her late residence, 437 Lindell boulevard, to New Cathedral chapel. The interment will be in Calvary cemetery. Miss Fox is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Creamer of St. Louis, and a brother, H. B. Fox of New York, who formerly resided in this city. Her death occurred Thursday.

His Injury a Mystery.

Edward Rush is at the City Hospital with a scalp wound and concussion of the brain. He does not know how he received his injuries. He went to Havlin's Theater Thursday afternoon. When the performance was over he walked out Walnut street to Seventh and over Seventh toward Market. He remembers something troubling him, and then there was a blank until he partially recovered consciousness at the City dispensary. He thinks something fell from a building and struck him.

Hold Runaway Boys.

Shivering with cold and fright at the fury of Thursday night's storm, Edward Daniels and George Thomson, runaway boys from Omaha, greeted with delight the policeman that found them huddled in a hallway at Twelfth and St. Charles streets at 2 o'clock Friday morning. Both are 15 years old. Edward Daniels is the stepson of Charles Dean of 616 North Fifth street, Omaha, and George Thomson is the son of George Thomson, Sr., of 118 North Twenty-sixth street, Omaha.

Shooting at Meramec Highlands.

Richard Willis of Meramec Highlands is held in the Clayton jail on a charge of shooting W. H. Harrison, who is not expected to recover. Both are negroes. The trouble took place Wednesday at Meramec Highlands. Willis was recently acquitted of a charge of murdering Bud Brooks at Clayton.

Hit Neighbor With a Brick.

Edward J. Zimmerman of 2221 Howard avenue was fined $25 in the Dayton Street Police Court Friday morning for having hit his neighbor, John J. Zimmerman, at 2118 Howard avenue, with a brick. The man was charged with striking Zimmerman with a brick.

Paine's Celery Compound

Milwaukee, Dec. 18, 1903.—"Through a friend I was advised to take Paine's Celery Compound for stomach trouble, with which I was afflicted for years. My food had lost taste.

"I had no appetite and my system was entirely out of order.

"There was a sudden change.

"I wondered; for it was like a kind blessing falling on me.

"It surely performs its wonders in a marvelous way, and cheerfully and with gratitude I join my voice with the thousands who are praising Paine's Celery Compound. It has made me a well woman."

MRS. MARY KENNEY.

Discontent, ill temper, low spirits, dependency, dizziness, sick headache, heartburn, palpitation of the heart, distention of the stomach—all of them are dyspepsia. The underlying cause is that the organs of digestion have not the Nerve Strength to do their work properly.

The true cure must be a cure of the inner nerves, which govern the digestive organs and the entire human system.

"I Was Sick—Dizzy—Worn-Out."

North Weymouth, Mass., Dec. 14.—"Paine's Celery Compound is the best and most effective medicine I have ever taken.

"I was sick, dizzy, worn-out, and my blood was in a terrible condition. I was advised to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I did with pleasing results, and in a short time I was able to return to my business. My blood is greatly benefited. I would advise all who are run down by overwork or who need a blood tonic to take Paine's Celery Compound. They will find that it will be a great benefit to them."

Bad Blood—Neuralgia.

"I testify in regard to Paine's Celery Compound, that I had bad blood and was subject to neuralgia, was much bothered, tried various specifics, but to no purpose; thought I would try Paine's Celery Compound, used three bottles and it cured me. I shall recommend it to all of my friends. I consider it the best medicine ever met for nervous diseases."—John Ehrenbach, 616 Putnam av., Eau Claire, Wis.

Stop to Consider
Goodness vs Cheapness

Health and happiness are important things with most people. Proper food, which is vital to both, is a serious question. You can't afford to eat a food preparation just because it's cheap.

SWEET HEART'S FACE ON YOUR FINGER NAIL

New Parisian Fad Which May Show a Man's Devotion and Can Sweeten a Woman's Vengeance.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

(Copyright, 1904, by the Press Publishing Co.)

PARIS, March 25.—The newest fad, the "last cry," for the ultra-fashionable and super-devoted young men is to have the picture of "the best beloved woman in the world" photographed on the nail of the little finger of his right hand.

The portrait of his love thus stamped on his very being, so to speak, maras and illustrates at once the height and depth of his devotion to her.

The nail picture is made by a very delicate photographic process, and is indelible. So some young women, who are certain they love and can never love again, have had the picture of the sweetheart photographed on their thin, pink, translucent little nails.

But the fad of love often withers. So it is lucky that the human nail grows. And unless a woman or man chooses to wear the nail in China's a photograph on one of them is bound to disappear. This fact encourages the fad, and women and men, to adopt the fad and to decorate their nails with the features of their "newest sweetheart."

But they must be patient. A learned physiologist has calculated that it will grow at the rate of a thirtieth of an inch in a week. So three months time and persistent use of nail polish will obliterate such a nail picture, a long time for a pretty address to wait for a new photograph.

But how happy could be a vengeful woman, thus adorned, who had quarreled with him she thought she loved. Try to imagine her supreme joy as she would snip from her nail, by currying the nail with her eyes, his nose and lips, in turn, and, last, the tip of his chin.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—"Young Corbett" and Jimmy Britt meet tonight.

Both men will be in the best possible condition for what is expected to prove one of the most sensational fights between lightweights ever waged in America.

The two fighters have earned a reputation for straight conduct in the ring and both have had up to now a brilliant career.

The California boy has never yet known defeat, either as an amateur or in his two years' professional experience in the ring.

His opponent, the champion featherweight of the world, has lost but three fights in the four years during which he has been meeting all comers and in many cases taking desperate chances.

The fight tonight will decide the future of both boxers and the winner will be hailed as the prospective lightweight champion of the world.

The men will fight straight Marquis of Queensberry rules. When they enter the ring both will be down to weight, although it is suspected that Corbett will go considerably lower as it is understood he has been working toward this end.

Both men passed a quiet day, although Corbett did some light work during the morning.

The betting has been brisk, each boxer having many friends and admirers. The heaviest money behind the Denver boy, with the odds, as a rule, 10 to 6. A good deal of eastern money has been coming into town, most of it from friends of Corbett, but they are asking 8 to 10 in most cases.

The house has all been sold out, and it is calculated that the proceeds will amount to fully $10,000. It is estimated that fully 5000 people will be turned away, the accommodations at Woodward's pavilion being limited.

"Spider" Kelly will be behind Britt when he enters the ring, with Harry Tutthill and Tim McGrath in Corbett's corner. Eddie Graney will referee the contest.

ST. LOUIS EXPERTS GIVE CORBETT THE PREFERENCE.

The opinions of the local fight experts differ as to the result of the fight in San Francisco tonight. They are about evenly divided with a slight lean in Corbett's way.

Harry Sharpe, the well-known local referee, says:

"The worst I can see for Britt is a draw. I have carefully gone over the dope on the two men, and I think that the champion has struck a snag in Jimmy Britt at 20 pounds. I should not be at all surprised to see Britt win, and I am almost certain that he will not get worse than a draw."

Twin Sullivan, who is training here for his coming fight with Jack O'Brien, says:

"Corbett for mine. He is the greatest man at his weight that ever put on gloves, and I don't think that there is a man today that can beat him at that weight. Britt is a tough little fighter, and I have all the respect in the world for his ability, but he is not the man to beat the champion."

Tom Corbett gives Britt an even chance. It is going to be the hardest fight either boy ever had, and nobody can say who will win, but for me Britt has as good a chance as the champion. Britt is a fighter as well as a boxer, and can hold his own at any and take slugfests. He can't be rattled, and I believe that he is the craftiest man of the two. If it goes the limit I shall expect a draw decision.

Jack McKenna stands by his guns. "You know what I said in the Sunday Post-Dispatch. Well, that's me. Corbett will knock Britt out before the end of the fight."

Jack Crowley, Bob Douglas, Frank Hart, Green Kelly, Mike O'Donnell, Danny Houghton and others all favor Corbett's chances. "He has the punch," they say, "and knows how to slip it over."

Loved Ponies More Than Home.

The World's Fair stake of $50,000 will not be won by Sam Davis of Homestead, Pa., age 13, aspirant for jockey fame. The youngster was picked up at the Fair grounds while working around the racing stables. Upon being questioned by a patrolman he confessed to running away from his home on account of his attachment for the ponies. The Homestead police were notified, and if they find the boy's parents he will be returned to them. One writer he sent to the juvenile court.

Taken from Nature.

From the pure fountain of nature flows the stream of energy and health, which renews and invigorates our race. In every period of the world's progress men have received their greatest strength and inspiration direct from nature. It is the greatest teacher and developer of mankind. Not only do we get inspiration from nature, but health as well. To live in the open, in the sunshine, in the fields or woods, drinking pure air into the lungs, is best for those who have the opportunity. For people who are run-down, nervous, suffering from occasional indigestion or dyspepsia, headaches, night-sweats, whose machinery has become worn, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. For centuries it has been known that nature's most valuable health-giving agents are roots, herbs, barks and berries, and some forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., found a combination of roots, herbs and barks, taken from the fields and woods and made into an alternative extract, produced results in the system which was satisfactory in almost every case of blood disorder and stomach trouble. This concentrated extract of nature's vitality purifies the blood by putting the stomach into healthy condition, helping the assimilation of food which feeds the blood, and putting the liver into activity. Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that on properly nourished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby all the organs of the body are run smoothly, like the machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you feel braced up, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting. The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large sale for a short time is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol fairly shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and so one may feel exhilarated and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does not contain alcohol. The proof is easy. Distill a little in a glass retort and see for yourself. Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of public approval. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence. What you want is a remedy without alcohol, and one which has stood the test of time.

"It is with pleasure that I give my hearty endorsement to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Hon. E. E. Willard, Judge of 11th District, Duval Co., Fla. "It is the most successful remedy that I know of for the weakened condition of the digestive organs which excessive heat or overwork sometimes brings, causing indigestion, sick headache, a disagreeable or bitter taste in the mouth, sleepless nights and a complication of unnatural conditions, making one feel sick all over. Your remedy is scientifically prepared and well calculated to renovate the entire system, cleansing and vitalizing the blood and assisting the stomach to perfect assimilation of food, which will soon restore health and harmony."

The dealer who tries to palm off a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," does so in order to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious preparations. Insist on having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In the scope of its 700 large pages there are discussed the great mysteries of human origin and of human destiny, and a broad path is laid out for those who would have a strong and long life. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book bound in strong cloth, or if content to have the book in paper covers, send only 21 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ASTHMA

Medical authorities now concede that under the system of treatment introduced by Dr. Frank Whetzel of Chicago, ASTHMA CAN BE CURED.

Dr. L. D. Knott, Lebanon, Ky.; F. E. Brown, Pimlico, Iowa; Dr. J. C. Currier, St. Paul, Minn.; Dr. M. L. Cramer, St. Louis, Mo.; Dr. C. F. Beard, No. 11, Franklin, Mass., bear witness to the efficacy of his treatment and the permanency of the cure in their own cases. Dr. Whetzel's new method is a radical departure from the old-fashioned smoke powders, sprays, etc., which relieve but do not cure.

SHE NEED NOT PAY $387 FOR $90 LOAN

Justice Spies' Decision in the Suit of
W. S. Price Against Mrs.
Mary Beecher.

WOMAN'S STORY OF THE DEBT

Court Decides, However, That Mrs.
Beecher Need Not Pay Amount
Sued for by W. S. Price.

Mrs. Mary Beecher.

BORROWED $90, OWED $387.
Sum borrowed in 1898.....$ 90
Amount of $90 in five years at 8 per cent.....126
Amount paid by Mrs. Beecher to
W. S. Price.....82
Amount for which Mrs. Beecher was sued.....387

Justice Louis Spies handed down his decision in the case of W. S. Price against John and Mary Beecher of 282 Pine street Friday morning.

Mrs. Beecher wins, and she will not be obliged to pay the $387 which Price sued for and which he claimed he loaned to Mrs. Beecher.

Attorneys for Price will take an appeal from the decision.

The story of the loan, according to Mrs. Beecher's testimony, as well as the statement of John W. Staley, who was once interested in the transaction, began five years ago.

At that time Mrs. Beecher says that she borrowed $90 from John H. Vette, at 8 per cent.

She says that her papers went from John H. Vette to John W. Staley, back again to Vette, and then to W. S. Price, until the present amount for which she is sued is $387.

To Price alone she paid $82.

When affairs were in the hands of John W. Staley he brought suit against her. The case was tried in Judge Pollard's court and Mrs. Beecher won.

Later it was appealed to the Circuit Court, and Staley won.

The costs of the suit were added to Mrs. Beecher's indebtedness.

She says that she was willing to continue making payments on her debt, hoping some day to be free, but that when she was asked to sign notes amounting to $400 she refused, and then suit was brought.

Mrs. Beecher cried when she talked of her suit, saying that she had been born and brought up in St. Louis, and had always tried to pay her debts, but that this one seemed to grow instead of decrease as she made payments upon it.

A possible explanation for the increase of Mrs. Beecher's debt lies in the following statement made by John W. Staley.

"The rate of interest fixed by law is 8 per cent. Of course we get more than that, but that depends upon the honesty of the man with whom we deal."

"The courts will not give us more than that amount. Men who borrow from us usually pay us the interest we ask. If they don't of course we don't lend to them again."

PROF. PAUL MORI, ORGANIST, DIES

He Was Choirmaster of St. George's and Well-Known Teacher of Music.

Paul Mori, organist of St. George's Episcopal Church and one of the best-known musicians in St. Louis, died at 8:30 Friday morning at the Lutheran Hospital, Ohio avenue and Potomac street, from dropsy. He had been ill for a month.

Mr. Mori was about 40 years of age and had been a resident of St. Louis for twenty years.

In addition to being an organist, Prof. Mori was a capable choirmaster, a teacher of various branches of music and the author of pleasing compositions. His arrangement of the sextette from "Lucia," sung by the Apollo Club last year, received enthusiastic endorsement from musical critics.

Prof. Mori was married and resided at 406 Odell avenue.

GOT CONFUSED AND LOST CASE
Tide of Trial Changes When Effort to Compromise Is Learned.

Miss Lizzie Muehlhauser of 404 Hunt avenue identified Leo McDermott of 2241 Walnut street in the City Hall Police Court Friday morning as the man who attacked her at Tower Grove and Hunt avenue March 13, beating her and blacking her eyes under the supposition that she was his wife, from whom he was separated.

The case was progressing in Miss Muehlhauser's favor when it was found that an effort had been made to compromise the case out of court.

Miss Muehlhauser, who had no attorney, became confused and the case was thrown out of court.

Hospitality for Alumni.
Notice has been sent to the Jesuit University of the world that St. Louis University will be holding the summer for the entertainment of the alumni of the institutions. The university parlor, restaurant and reading room will be all open to the service of the visitors, and refreshments will be served ready to hand.

KAISER IS "ONTO" AMERICANS

Says Lots of Them Would Pay Any Sum to Live in Cabins Occupied by Him.

LONDON, March 25.—The Daily Mail's Naples correspondent says that, on leaving the steamer Koenig Albert, Emperor

William asked whether his state cabins would be left as he had occupied them.

On the captain answering his question in the negative, Emperor William said:

"Oh that is a great mistake. I am sure lots of Americans would pay any sum to live in the cabins occupied by me."

BEER A LUXURY ON THE PIKE

Ten Cents for a Stein Will Be Gladly
Paid, Concessionaires
Figure.

Beer on the Pike will be 10 cents a glass.
Not Market street measure, either, but filling only the slender receptacles of the fashionable cafe.

by the restaurant concessionaires' association, who argue that beer is not a necessity, but a luxury, and that visitors to the Fair who have tramped for miles through a maze of exhibits will gladly pay the increased rate when they arrive at a thirst station.

There will be no cut-rate parlors where quick sales and small profits signs will be hung above the kegs. The concessionaires have agreed that all beer shall flow at strictly regulation rates.

MAXIMILIAN'S CAR FOR FAIR

Heirloom of Unfortunate Emperor, Rich in Jeweled Trappings,
on Way to St. Louis.

LAREDO, Tex., March 24.—The historical state coach used by Maximilian during his reign as Emperor of Mexico passed the custom house at Laredo today en route to

St. Louis, where it will be placed among the rest of Mexican exhibits at the Lantians Purchase Exposition.

This magnificent vehicle is literally covered with gold, silver and pearls, worked in artistic designs.

It has for years been the most famous of all Mexican heirlooms and has had a conspicuous place in the National Museum at Mexico City.

CUPID'S ADVANCE AGENT REWARDED

For Winning Widow as His Client's Bride "Schatchen" Gets Judgment of $300.

"THANK YOU," NOT ENOUGH

After Ceremony Good Wishes Were Exchanged, but Nothing Was Done With Bill.

Meyer Tanabum of 1015 North Thirteenth street has secured a judgment against Morris Pomerance, formerly of 10 North Nineteenth street, now of Little Rock, Ark., for $300 for services as "schatchen" in bringing about the marriage of Pomerance to Mrs. A. Goodman.

Pomerance was not present at the hearing Thursday afternoon, in Justice Carroll's court, although he had been served with a summons before he left for Little Rock. Tanabum was permitted to testify as to his services.

The debt was incurred six weeks ago. Pomerance was then visiting in St. Louis, and hearing that Tanabum was a great "schatchen," or matchmaker, he went to him and told him how lonely he had been of late, and how much joy it would bring to his heart if he could find a woman who would share with him the worldly prosperity the residents of Little Rock were showering upon him because of his business foresight.

Tanabum listened and pondered long. Then he asked Pomerance many questions as to his world goods and his position in society, and announced that he would be pleased to introduce him to a widow, whose fortune and personal graces were worthy of his attention.

Pomerance was introduced to Mrs. Goodman, and the wisdom of the "schatchen's" choice was soon apparent. A few days later they were married.

Tanabum sought them after the ceremony and offered his congratulations, also his bill. The happy couple replied that they were happy to receive his good wishes, but said nothing about the bill. Tanabum waited, but nothing was said of the bill, and hearing that the bride and groom were soon to leave the city he sought the courts.

GUESTS IN HOTEL SAVE HUNTED MAN

John Cara Is Driven to Bay in Corridor of Southern by Armed Pursuers.

Prompt rescue work by Southern Hotel guests saved John Cara from the hands of a horde of enraged men, who Thursday night, drove him to cover in the Walnut street vestibule, where he sank exhausted, covered with bruises and cuts.

The sluetto, with which Cara was armed and which he brandished in the faces of his pursuers carried no terror for the down men who ran him to the Southern. They beat him with clubs and hacked at him with knives, until his clothes were torn to shreds and his head and arms were covered with blood.

How the fight started Cara could not muster sufficient English to explain at the City Dispensary, where his wounds were dressed.

Guests of the hotel saw the men who had attacked him flee as they approached and found Cara on the floor in the vestibule.

Cara, who lives at 713 Biddle street, was permitted to go home after he had recovered from the shock of his experience.

Cleveland's Luck With Him.

BALTIMORE, March 25.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who arrived here early in the week, returned today from a duck shooting trip on the flats of the Upper Chesapeake. He had with him 20 canvasbacks and redhead ducks as trophies of his prowess in blind shooting. During the afternoon he was driven through the burned area of the city.

CHANGE of LIFE

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop forever, are only a few of the symptoms of dangerous nervous trouble. The nerves are crying out for assistance. The cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life, and all women who use it pass through this trying period with comfort and safety.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I feel it my duty to write you about the wonderful cure your medicine has brought about."

"I suffered for years with change of life. I would have fainting spells, either before or after my monthly periods. They would come on me suddenly. Sometimes I would be on the street."

"I had pains all over me. My head ached all the time, could take no walks or go up stairs without becoming completely exhausted. I suffered untold misery. I tried doctor's medicines for a long time, but derived no benefit."

"I cannot say too much in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and would advise all sufferers of female trouble to use it, for it will certainly cure them."—Mrs. LIZZIE C. REYNOLDS, Buchanan, Va.

When one stops to think about the good these women derived from this great medicine, it seems almost beyond belief; yet it is all true as stated in their letters published above at their own request.

For these ills no other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

As a positive fact the private files at Lydia E. Pinkham's laboratory contain thousands of letters from women who have been safely carried through that danger period "Change of Life." The cures of Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Blake are not unusual ones for this medicine to accomplish.

"My trouble was change of life and cramping. No human tongue can describe what I suffered with the cramp. I dreaded from one time to another so much that I almost wanted to die."

"Our family physician did everything he could for me, but I got no relief. He said if I lived to get through with the other trouble, it would wear away after a time, but I had it six years and could not walk or exercise in any way without bringing on an attack of the cramp, and I would suffer untold misery until I would be perfectly exhausted and helpless."

"I read in one of your little books about your medicine being good for female trouble and change of life, and thought there was no harm in trying it, so I did, and it helped me and I was able to take walks and work some."

"I am very thankful for the relief your medicine has been to me."—Mrs. V. M. BLAKE, Deep Water, W. Va.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had elsewhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass.—If you are sick write her—you are foolish if you don't. She speaks from the greatest experience.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
